DIRECTIONS
Take the Kosciuszko Road to Jindabyne, across the dam wall and through the town centre. Drive through two roundabouts and past Snowy Mountains Grammar School (on left). The access road to Lake Jindabyne Sailing Club is about 500 metres after the second (Barry Way) roundabout on the right. For safer ingress to the Club from this direction sailors should drive past the sailing club road to the Snowline Discovery Caravan Park and Shell service station to facilitate a u-turn and return to the sailing club’s access road on their left. The access road to the clubhouse is a single lane gravel road which crosses the lakeside cycle-way.

Limited car parking is available adjacent to the Lake Jindabyne Sailing Club clubhouse. Trailers should be parked separately along the grass area to the left of the access road and below the cycle-way. Boat rigging and temporary storage will be available along the lake shore. Boats should not be rigging or stored in the marked launch area and access road. Overflow parking for cars, trailers and boats will be available at the “Clay Pits” area which is accessed from the Barry Way roundabout.

Public toilets and showers are also available at this area which is a short walk via the cycle-way or lake shore to the clubhouse.

Trailerable yachts and power boats can also access the lake via the public boat ramp which is located just past the Snowline Discovery Caravan Park and Shell service station. Cars and trailers can be parked adjacent to the boat ramp.
